A Letter from the VP of Finance

A strategic plan creates a shared vision of where we want to go. We have been working on updating our Long-Term Vision (LTV) with a goal of strengthening our position as a leader in caring for individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities. With a focus on our resident life experience, we are approaching this in four areas:

1. Our employees are the strength of our organization and the engine of our person-centered approach. We strive to be known as an Employer of Choice by being intentional in how we recruit, reward, onboard, develop, and retain employees.
2. Our ‘Resident Life’ model differentiates Marbridge from other intentional care communities with a wide array of training, experiences, employment, and education opportunities. We aspire to be known as thought leaders in the industry with innovative programming based on personalized ‘Abilities Centered Care’.
3. Partners are the support system that enables Marbridge to continue to grow and thrive. The LTV will provide a clear vision so that partners are engaged in our future, see how they can be a part of it, and have opportunities to contribute to our long-term sustainability.
4. The projects in our LTV allow us to upgrade and expand the infrastructure that supports our ‘People and Programs’ and enhances the quality of our resident life experience.

Over the next several months, the Board and Leadership Team will be working to refine this vision of Marbridge’s future. We look forward to sharing more with you and hope that our vision inspires you to become a bigger part of the Marbridge experience.

Humbly,

Mike Moulton
Vice President of Finance

Around Campus

The Villa: Leading the Way in Technology

The Villa is on the cutting edge of resident safety as multiple residents now have an AI Fall Detection, called KamiCare, in their room. The new technology allows our nursing staff to be immediately alerted should a resident fall or give advanced notice should a resident display a bout of instability.

KamiCare is another tool that helps Marbridge continue to provide top of the line care for residents.

Group Volunteering on the Way Up

Marbridge has seen an increase in group volunteering on campus in the last six months. Over 20 different groups have offered their time, service, and compassion with Marbridge ranging from schools, church groups, and businesses.

Group volunteers have helped with beautification projects, hosted activities, helped in classrooms, and lent a hand at The Villa.

A New Marbridge Website in the Works

Thanks to a private donation, Marbridge has begun the first stages of building out an all new website. The website will be more user friendly, visually appealing, and informative. Be on the lookout for a fresh and new Marbridge website coming in January 2026.

Facts about the IDD Population and How Marbridge Helps Navigate Resources and Programs

Adults with Intellectual and Development Disabilities (IDD) are more vulnerable to online bullying, harassment, exploitation, and abuse. Due to their trusting nature, they might share personal information or engage in risky behaviors without understanding the potential dangers.

In 2024, Marbridge implemented the SAFE (Stop Abuse For Everyone) program in Training & Education course offerings to help combat this vulnerability. SAFE was designed to be inclusive and accessible for adults with IDD in establishing safer relationships in-person, online, in the workplace, in their families, and more.

Adults with disabilities (including those with IDD), are three-times more likely to have heart disease, stroke, diabetes, or cancer than adults without disabilities. Regular physical activity can help reduce the impact of these chronic conditions.

Marbridge assists with an active and healthier lifestyle for residents through numerous Training & Education opportunities within Victory Hall and the Mike Parsons Wellness Center. Victory Hall celebrated its 10th Anniversary in 2025!

Arts-and-crafts activities are beneficial for people with IDD, providing opportunities for self-expression, communication, and skill development. These activities can improve fine motor skills, hand-eye coordination, and overall well-being.

Villa Enrichment Specialists, Training & Education Instructors, and Resident Trainers host multiple arts-and-crafts activities and classes daily.

Sometimes though, the best way to share life on campus is through smiles. Enjoy these resident picture day photos from Spring 2025. We hope they brighten your day, much like they do for us on a daily basis.

You Helped Raise Over $960,000 During the 24-Hour Day-of-Giving

Astonished, humbled, elated, overjoyed, grateful, and overwhelmed are just a few of the emotions we felt during our second annual 24-Hour Day-of-Giving. That’s because you helped raise over $960,000 towards Marbridge’s Benevolent Care Program in May, and achieve our matching donation of $475,000.

Thanks to the generosity of Marbridge’s amazing supporters, along with matching donations from families and foundations like the Harry E. & Eda L. Montandon Charitable Trust, residents who receive Benevolent Care will continue calling campus “home.” That means residents continue to learn, experience, and achieve a whole new life alongside their friends and peers.

We can’t thank each of you enough for the outpouring of support, love, and care for Marbridge during the 24-Hour Day-of-Giving, throughout the month of May, and for your continued support of campus. Big Strides Continue in Equine

A Hometown Hero and a First at the Creed Ford III Therapeutic Riding Ranch at Marbridge

Each year Marbridge participates in Rodeo Austin’s ‘Gold Stirrup’ Horse Show. It’s a regional equestrian competition including teams from the Greater Austin Area. This year, Marbridge riders took home numerous medals, belt buckles, and ribbons for their riding, but it wasn’t the only honor that Marbridge claimed.

This year’s rodeo was also extra special as Shonda Corn, Equine Coordinator, was named a “Hometown Hero” by Rodeo Austin. The honor is given out to individuals in the greater Austin area for their dedication and contributions to the rodeo world.

“I was humbled beyond words and honored to be named a ‘Hometown Hero’ by Rodeo Austin. The award isn’t about me, it’s about the residents and what they do. If it wasn’t for the residents and the amazing volunteers, this wouldn’t be possible. The residents and volunteers are the real heroes, but I was very honored to receive that award.” - Shonda Corn

To say that the campus is beyond proud, would be an understatement. Shonda’s commitment, grace, leadership, and class are second to none. We know that the work she, her team, and volunteers provide Marbridge residents are the reason our equine therapy and equestrian teams are such a success.

It wasn’t just Shonda’s award and the team’s success that warrants highlighting though, as Marbridge hosted their first Special Olympics Regional Equestrian Competition within the Creed Ford III Therapeutic Riding Ranch.

The event, hosted on May 17, saw two teams from the Austin Area compete alongside Marbridge riders in the first regional hosted by Marbridge.

“The event was wonderful. It was great to see the dreams and vision of Creed Ford III come to fruition by hosting this event,” said Marcus Mercer, VP of Operations. “The event shows a need and what the opportunities can be for the greater community.”

Marbridge’s first ever Special Olympics Equestrian event didn’t come overnight. It was over a year’s worth of planning alongside the hard work of all of Marbridge’s team members and volunteers alongside amazing supporters like you. We can’t wait to host more events in the Creed Ford III Therapeutic Riding Ranch and open our arena doors to more individuals across the Austin area.

A Partner Like No Other

Marbridge Teams Up with KXAN to Spread the Mission

In the late spring of 2023, Marbridge began a partnership with Nexstar, an industry leader in sharing world class programming across the country. In Austin, Nexstar runs KXAN (NBC), KNVA (The CW), and KBVO. Upon starting the partnership, Marbridge knew KXAN and Nexstar’s other local stations would be the best to help share the mission with the masses, but didn’t anticipate just how strong the partnership would grow.

Over the past two years, Marbridge has had the pleasure of working with all areas of the KXAN team. From the on-air team, production, account executives, and more, the KXAN team has been involved with Marbridge’s mission.

“The Marbridge family is so profoundly special to all of us at the station. What started as a simple service initiative, turned into deep, meaningful connections between the KXAN family and the Marbridge family—connections rooted in a shared sense of community, acceptance, and support,” shares Jennifer Sanders, KXAN News Anchor. “From the moment I arrived, I felt appreciated and valued by every person I met. We laughed together, sang together, created art, and even shared personal life stories...I needed a few tissues after I left.”

The real highlight came in 2024 when Nexstar celebrated their Founder’s Day. To celebrate, the vast majority of the KXAN, KNVA, and KBVO teams spent the entire day on campus giving back as part of their Founder’s Day celebration. Their day of service included helping in classrooms, leading activities, getting hands on at the Creed Ford III Therapeutic Riding Ranch, beautification projects, and more.

“It was great seeing all of the Nexstar team interacting with our campus and residents,” said Bob Worden, Director of Communications and Development. “Having partners who are so involved in our mission means the world to us.”

Their commitment to campus didn’t stop after their Founder’s Day service project. Since their visit to campus, several KXAN team members have become volunteers, regularly support Marbridge events, and a handful have made lasting bonds with the residents and team.

Marbridge Volunteers Shine Bright

A Golden Night for Hearts of Gold

Marbridge volunteers are true heroes for campus. They share their time, services, talents, and love with residents and staff at Marbridge. Each year, Marbridge hosts a Volunteer Appreciation Dinner to thank the volunteers for their dedication and support.

The 2025 Volunteer Appreciation Dinner took place at the beautiful Hog Heaven in Dripping Springs on Thursday, April 24. The evening saw volunteers and team members from across campus come together to share laughs, stories, and more.

John Moody, Marbridge’s Volunteer Coordinator, along with various team members from communities and Training & Education, capped off the night by handing out awards. Those awards included Volunteer of the Year, Volunteer Group of the Year, Excellence in Mentorship, the Mary Higgs Commitment Award, and the Bridges Award. See the full list of winners below.

Congratulations to all of the amazing winners and thank you to each volunteer who shares their time, love, and talent with Marbridge. You’re a big reason Marbridge has helped residents thrive for 72 years and a catalyst for success for years to come.

The Volunteer Appreciation Award wouldn’t have been possible without help from our selfless sponsors. Thank you to Frost Insurance, Gourmet Gals, Hog Heaven, A+ Federal Credit Union, Sysco, McCoy’s, Marbridge Parents & Families Association, Capital Reyes, and Scout & Cellar.
